

Publishing Agreement

Series: Lecture Notes in Physics

The following agreement has been approved by and entered into between

Prof. Morten Hjorth-Jensen, University of Oslo, Physics, Ctr of Mathematics for Applications, Blindernveien 1048, 0316 Oslo, Norway

Dr. Maria Paola Lombardo, INFN, Laboratori Nazionali di Frascati, Via Enrico Fermi 40, 00044 Frascati Roma, Italy

Prof. Bira van Kolck, University of Arizona, Department of Physics, 118 E. 4th St., Tucson, AZ 85721, USA

(hereinafter called Editor)
on the one part and

Springer International Publishing AG, Gewerbestrasse 11, 6330 Cham, Switzerland

(hereinafter called Springer)
on the other part.

When Editor is more than one person, the expression “Editor” as used in this agreement will apply collectively unless otherwise indicated.

§ 1 Rights Granted

- 1.1 Editor, in cooperation with further contributing authors to the work (hereinafter called Authors), undertakes to prepare for publication by Springer a work provisionally entitled:

An advanced course in computational nuclear physics - Bridging the scales from quarks to neutron stars

comprising approximately 300 pages, including approximately 50 illustrations. The Work may contain or link to media, social or functional enhancements. If such enhancements are included in or linked to the Work it will be specified in Clause 9. To the extent Clause 9 specifies that enhancements are included in the Work, they are an integral part of the Work and, unless otherwise explicitly set forth in Clause 9, all rights, licences and obligations agreed to hereunder shall apply to such enhancements.

- 1.2 Editor hereby grants and assigns to Springer the exclusive, sole, permanent, world-wide, transferable, sub-licensable and unlimited right to reproduce, publish, distribute, transmit, make available or otherwise communicate to the public, translate, publicly perform, archive, store, lease or lend and sell the Work or parts thereof individually or together with other works in any language, in all revisions and versions (including soft cover, book club and collected editions, anthologies, advance printing, reprints or print to order, microfilm editions, audiograms and videograms), in all forms and media of expression including in electronic form (including offline and online use, push or pull technologies, use in databases and networks for display, print and storing on any and all stationary or portable end-user devices, e.g. text readers, audio, video or interactive devices, and for use in multimedia or interactive versions as well as for the display or transmission of the works or parts thereof in data networks or search engines), in whole, in part or in abridged form, in each case as now known or developed in the future, including the right to grant further time-limited or permanent rights. Springer especially has the right to permit others to use individual illustrations, tables or text quotations and may use the Work for advertising purposes. For the purposes of use in electronic forms, Springer may adjust the Work to the respective form of use and include links (e.g. frames or inline-links) or otherwise combine it with other works and/or remove links or combinations with other works provided in the Work. For the avoidance of doubt, all provisions of this contract apply regardless of whether the Work itself constitutes a database under applicable copyright laws or not.

- 1.3 Springer may take, either in its own name or in that of copyright holder, any necessary steps to protect these rights against infringement by third parties. It will have a copyright notice inserted into all editions of the Work according to the provisions of the Universal Copyright Convention (UCC) and dutifully take care of all formalities in this connection in the name of the copyright holder. The parties acknowledge that there may be no basis for claim of copyright in the United States to a Work prepared by an officer or employee of the United States government as part of that person's official duties. If the Work was performed under a United States government contract, but Editor is not a United States government employee, Springer grants the United States government royalty-free permission to reproduce all or part of the Work and to authorise others to do so for United States government purposes. If the Work was prepared or published by or under the direction or control of Her Majesty (i.e., the constitutional monarch of the Commonwealth realm) or any Crown government department, the copyright in the work shall, subject to any agreement with Editor, belong to Her Majesty. If Editor is an officer or employee of the United States government or of the Crown, reference will be made to this status on the signature page.

§ 2 Delivery and Acceptance of the Work

- 2.1 Editor agrees to deliver the manuscript to Springer not later than March 31, 2016. The manuscript meets the terms of this agreement only if it satisfies the agreed stipulations as to form, content and size according to the guidelines provided by Springer upon signature. Springer reserves the right to provide reasonable updates thereof. Editor, in cooperation with the Authors, is responsible for correctness of the manuscript, including content, language, formal presentation and completeness.
- 2.2 Springer is entitled to carry out editorial changes on the manuscript within the usual limits. This is intended especially to enhance the uniform overall organisation and form of the Work. Any significant changes in content require the approval of the Editor. Springer is entitled to prepare and use summaries within the intended use of the Work and for the purposes of sales, distribution and advertising. In the case of special copyediting which is necessary above and beyond that for normal manuscript preparation for typesetting, the costs will be borne by Editor.
- 2.3 Editor, in cooperation with the Authors, warrants that the Work is original except for such excerpts from copyrighted works (including illustrations, tables, animations and text quotations) as may be included with the permission of the copyright holder thereof, in which case(s) Editor shall make sure that the Author(s) obtain(s) written permission to the extent necessary and that the Author(s) indicate(s) the precise sources of the excerpts in the manuscript.

- 2.4 Editor, in cooperation with the Authors, warrants that they have the power to grant the rights in accordance with Clause 1 "Rights Granted", that Editor has not assigned such rights to third parties, and that the Work has not heretofore been published in whole or in part. Editor is responsible for ensuring that all Authors sign Publishing Agreements or Consent-to-Publish forms in which each Author warrants that his/her contribution contains no libellous statements and does not infringe on any copyright, trademark, patent, statutory right or proprietary right of others, including rights obtained through licences; and that each Author will indemnify Springer against any costs, expenses or damages for which Springer may become liable as a result of any breach of this warranty. In case an Author is not willing or is unable to sign such statement, but the Editor insists on a publication of this contribution in the Work, despite the Author's not having signed the warranty/indemnification declaration, the Editor shall indemnify Springer against any damages resulting from the infringement of any third party rights.

§ 3 Publication of the Work

- 3.1 Springer will undertake the publication and distribution of the Work in print and electronic form at its own expense and risk. The final determination of the electronic formats and the number of copies produced is at the discretion of Springer. Springer will, at its sole discretion, set or alter the list-price, allow for deviations from the list-price (if permitted under applicable jurisdiction) and promote the Work as it considers most appropriate to optimise sales, including a good and suitable presentation for all distribution channels. Illustrations and any other material or immaterial property prepared at the expense of Springer (including, if applicable, printing plates or films) remain, as between the parties, the exclusive property of Springer.
- 3.2 Springer is entitled, depending on the market and the demand, to publish and distribute the Work in instalments (including but not limited to individual chapters) or to order. In case the Work is stored in physical stock Springer is also entitled to pulp the print run or any portion thereof without previously notifying Editor. Springer is required to continue promoting the Work and to retain a sufficient number of copies unless the Work is available in electronic form or on the basis of a print-to-order offer.

§ 4 Approval for Publishing

- 4.1 Editor, in cooperation with the Authors, shall proofread the page proofs, check the illustrations as well as any media, social or functional enhancements, and give approval for publishing. Editor's approval for publishing is deemed to have been given if Editor does not respond within a suitable period of time after receiving the proofs.
- 4.2 Proofs are sent to enable Editor and Authors to check that the manuscript has been properly set in type and to allow Editor to correct any typesetter's or illustrator's errors. In case Editor makes additional changes that lead to additional costs for Springer, and if such costs exceed 10% of the total cost of typesetting (or reproduction in the case of illustrations) they will be borne by Editor.
- 4.3 Should Editor make any content changes to the final proofs of the contributions after the Authors have given their approval for publication, Editor shall indemnify Springer against any damages for which Springer may become liable as a result of the change of content.

§ 5 Complimentary Copies, Editor's Discount for Books and Electronic Access

- 5.1 Editor or, if "Editor" comprises several individual editors, each of the co-editors who is party to this agreement is entitled to receive 5 printed copies free of charge and may obtain additional copies for personal use at a discount of 33 1/3% off the list-price if ordered directly from Springer.
- 5.2 Furthermore, Editor is entitled to purchase for Editor's personal use (directly from Springer) other books published by Springer at a discount of 33 1/3% off the list-price for as long as there is a contractual arrangement between Editor and Springer and subject to applicable book price regulation. Resale of such copies or of free copies is not permitted.
- 5.3 Springer shall provide electronic access to the electronic version of the Work on Springer's Internet portal, currently known as SpringerLink, to Editor. Furthermore, Editor has the right to download and disseminate single chapters from his/her Work created and provided by Springer for his/her private and professional non-commercial research and classroom use (e.g. sharing the chapter by mail or in hard copy form with research colleagues for their professional non-commercial research and classroom use, or to use it for presentations or handouts for students). Editor is also entitled to use single chapters for the further development of his/her scientific career (e.g. by copying and attaching chapters to an electronic or hard copy job or grant application). In each case, Springer grants the rights to Editor under this clause provided that Editor has obtained the prior consent of the (co-)author(s) of the respective chapter.

§ 6 Royalty

- 6.1 For each sold and paid copy of the Work or part thereof, print or electronic, sold as an individual book or individual part thereof, Springer shall pay to Editor a royalty of 10.0% based on the Net Proceeds (net amount Springer actually receives after deduction of all discounts and VAT, withholding tax and any other applicable taxes). For the avoidance of doubt, this includes (but is not limited to) such individual sales to digital and non-digital libraries as well as sales through third-party licensors.
- 6.2 If the Work is sold electronically as part of a Springer e-book package, Springer shall pay to Editor a remuneration of EUR 900 payable upon publication. This amount will be paid in addition to the royalty described above. If there is a legal requirement for Springer to withhold any taxes, the taxes will be deducted from the remuneration payment to Editor.
- 6.3 In the case of Bulk Sales, Editor's exclusive royalty for the respective Bulk Sale will be 10.0% of the related Net Proceeds, with "Bulk Sale" being defined as the production and/or distribution of a special number of copies of the Work or parts thereof at a special price regardless of whether it be performed by Springer or by third parties, regardless of whether in print or electronic format and further regardless of whether in a layout identical to the normal edition or not.
- 6.4 If Springer grants licenses to use the Work or derivative works thereof or parts of either in non-Springer products and the related use is not covered by subsections 6.1 to 6.3 above (e.g., a license to translate the work and to distribute the translation, or a license to distribute parts of the Work in a third party book), Editor's exclusive royalty for the respective license and any related use will be a share of Springer's Net Proceeds according to industry standards (currently 50%). Electronic editions published by Springer and sold through Springer's third-party licensing partners shall not be included in such sharing.

- 6.5 Free copies which are provided by Springer for the purposes of review, promotion, sample or otherwise free of charge are not subject to royalty payments. Likewise, copies that are damaged and cannot be sold are not subject to royalty payments.
- 6.6 The aforesaid royalties and remuneration shall be the sole compensation to be paid to Editor with respect to the Work and the rights granted. In case the Work contains or links (e.g. through frames or in-line links) to media, social or functional enhancements, the royalties, remuneration, complimentary copies and/or access rights granted under this contract, are deemed to be adequate consideration. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid royalties and remuneration will be paid as a total to the joint group of editors if "Editor" comprises several individual editors. Each co-editor will receive an equal share of any payment.
- 6.7 Accounts will be settled annually in April for the preceding calendar year, with payment to follow soon thereafter.
- 6.8 If there is a legal requirement for Springer to withhold any taxes, the taxes will be deducted from the payments to Editor. Editors are responsible for the taxation of their payments. Springer is entitled to report related information (including personal and financial data) to the respective authorities.
- 6.9 Any publisher's proceeds from rights managed by national copyright organizations (collecting societies including but not limited to societies such as Copyright Clearance Center) are the sole property of Springer. Any such editor's proceeds are the sole property of Editor, and if applicable, registration and taxation of such proceeds is Editor's sole responsibility. This subsection 6.9 shall have precedence over any other subsection of this Clause 6 Royalty.

§ 7 Competing Works

Editor agrees not to contribute or to release with another publisher any publication that contains expression or subject matter substantially similar to the Work and which may compete with the Work. Any publication of substantial parts of the Work requires the prior written consent of Springer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. Editor retains, in addition to uses permitted by law, the right to communicate the content of the Work to other scientists, to share the Work with them in manuscript form, to perform or present the Work or to use the content for non-commercial internal and educational purposes provided the authors agree and that the Springer publication is mentioned as the original source of publication in any printed or electronic materials.

§ 8 New Editions

- 8.1 Springer has the sole right to determine the publication of any subsequent edition, such determination to be made only after consultation with the Editor. In the event of subsequent editions, they shall be published by Springer. Once notified by Springer that a new edition is deemed necessary, Editor agrees to deliver an updated manuscript according to the terms of Clause 2 "Delivery and Acceptance of the Work" together with the material for any new illustrations within 9 months of such notification. Substantial changes in the nature or size of the Work require the approval of Springer. Upon publication of such new edition, Editor shall receive a consideration equivalent to Clause 6 "Royalty".
- 8.2 If Editor, for whatever reason, is unwilling, unable or fails to submit an updated manuscript that meets the terms of this agreement within the above stated period, then Springer is entitled to revise, update and publish the content of the original edition or to designate one or more individuals to prepare this and all future editions. In this case, Editor does not participate in preparing future editions. Furthermore, Editor or Editor's beneficiaries shall, with respect to this second edition, receive 50% of the financial consideration stipulated in Clause 6 "Royalty" (if any) but shall have no right or claim from any further versions or editions of the Work.

§ 9 Miscellaneous

- 9.1 In addition to the Editor complimentary copies in clause 5, Springer agrees to provide each Author with one complimentary copy of the Work. Editor shall provide Springer with a list of e-mail addresses of the Authors. Springer will contact them and ask for their delivery addresses.

§ 10 General Provisions

- 10.1 This agreement shall be governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of Switzerland. The courts of Zug, Switzerland shall have the exclusive jurisdiction.

- 10.2 This agreement and the documents referred to within constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede any previous agreements, warranties, representations, undertakings or understandings. It may be modified or amended only in writing. For purposes of this agreement, "in writing" requires either a written and signed document or an electronic confirmation with DocuSign or similar e-commerce solution.

- 10.3 Nothing contained in this Agreement shall constitute or shall be construed as constituting a partnership, joint venture or contract of employment between Springer and Editor. Each editor is jointly and severally liable for Editor's obligations. Neither party may assign this agreement to third parties but Springer may assign this agreement or the rights received hereunder to its affiliated companies.

To signify their agreement to the terms outlined herein, all parties have signed and exchanged this contract.
